sadly the map didn't appear to work on a Mac - however I know my own ward. I feel that Wilbarston feels more aligned with Desborough ward than Kettering - in terms of distance as well as in how our village operates. Our local police contacts are in Desborough. Many of the children at the school come from Desborough. a significant amount of traffic that drives through the village is from Desborough. I can't think of any reason to be connected to Kettering at all in terms of our ward. we have to drive through either desborough or corby to get there! I'm not aware of any children who live in the village going to schools in kettering - all go to harborough, rothwell, uppingham or corby. However the best solution would be to have a rural ward as this would properly address the issues that relate to the villages in north northants which don't relate to the the towns around us. That would be the ideal solution but i suspect it would be too complicated and costly.
