I'm a resident of Hatton Park (my home address being [REDACTED]) - I notice that we are surrounded by Earls Barton which covers a massive area. I also can see that the current boundary of Hatton Park excludes the housing estate of Redhill Gange & Great Harrowden - given the proximity of these two areas & the current development at Glenvale Park - half of which currently seems to be allocated to Earls Barton which surely cannot be right, I would have thought it natural to combine all these altogether under Hatton Park. There may well be an imbalance of voting population as a result which may be an issue when allocating a similar number of voters to each councillor(s), but I would have thought it is better for the elected councillor(s) to be responsible for a ward rather a ward being split over another adjacent ward.
