I was [REDACTED] St Matthews School, High Brooms for several years, and I volunteer each [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] It makes no sense at all to separate the school from the Southborough/High Brooms ward. Although you may consider it to be an invisible boundary, it is not invisible and is divisive in splitting the existing strong community. I urge you to rethink and focus on the people within the living community rather than creating an academic reorganisation.
