I am wholly against the changes proposed for Kilndown to be split from Goudhurst and moved into the Hawkhurst etc Ward. As a regular church goer to both churches Goudhurst and Kilndown, the idea of splitting them up when we do lots of joint things together is wrong. Many community events like fetes, fundraisers and community socials are all done jointly. The scouts club is attended by people in both Goudhurst and Kilndown and most importantly so is Goudhurst School. It is not easy to get to the other wards by road, whereas going to Goudhurst is a quick ride down the hill which I do many times a week. How can it make sense to change Kilndown's ward when we in Kilndown and Goudhurst feel joined at the hip? It would be like taking the legs off a person and leaving it with the head and arms, I hope you will agree this would not be a good outcome for either village.
