Currently we are served by three excellent councillors. It is the view of this Parish Council that this should remain a three council ward. The area they serve is extensive being in the main a rural section of the county.

Not only do councillors attend to the needs of the parish councils they represent they are expected to join committees and attend numerous meetings. To cut our current councillor number down to two could mean that in future it will be difficult to find people, especially those in full time employment, to fill the roles given the time required to carry out their duties satisfactorily.

Paulerspury Parish Council therefore considers it essential to keep it a three councillor ward.
