There are far too many councillors in Gateshead. I suggest rather than 3 per ward this is reduced to 2. I'm sure they will all claim to be busy of course, but in my experience of Gateshead it always takes 3 men to change a light bulb. Think of all the money that will be saved. Perhaps then the council can concentrate on things that matter to residents like cutting grass, dealing with weeds, trees and filling potholes just to mention a few.
