

Gateshead

Personal Details:

Name: [REDACTED]
Email: [REDACTED]
Postcode: [REDACTED]
Organisation Name: (Member of the public)

Comment text:

Related subject: Pelaw

At a time when councils are cash strapped it seems strange that we should be supporting such an excess of representatives. A reduction of councillors more in line with the national average would be cost effective and in addition give more responsibility and accountability to the elected councillors that remain. It is hard to understand why anyone would realistically object to this proposal and place their own personal or political interests above the interests of beleaguered Gateshead residents.

Attached Documents:

None attached