Related subject: Wrekenton

I live in Eighton Banks which is in Lamesley ward along with,among others, Lamesley hamlet and Kibblesworth. Eighton Banks has much more in common with Wrekenton than these rural areas and I think Wrekenton and its surrounding area should be a ward on its own, not split between High Fell and Lamesley wards as it is now. Having to contact separate councillors about issues in the same "village" is ridiculous.
