I strongly disagree with combining Barton Seagrave and Burton Latimer.

The main A14 runs right the way through the middle and has a clear cut of point.

Village life is very different to town life (which Burton latimer is), they both have thriving town and parish councils who work for the differences in the two areas, Combining these together will affect the running and needs of the two locations. I would prefer too see it split into barton seagrave area and burton latimer area.

Currently Burton sits with broughton and some other villages, and this is not working.
