The names of the redefined boundaries do not properly reflect the boundaries. For instance the new "Lingfield and Crowhurst" extends all of the way up to Woldingham. There are few residents in the area within this new district, so it would make sense to incorporate the northern part of this new area (that to the West of Oxted) into Oxted North and Oxted South or even into Godstone. If doing the latter, it would make sense to incorporate the areas around Blindley Heath into "Lingfield and Crowhurst" to compensate.
