I am concerned about the new boundary proposal. Chaldon is a semi-rural area which has had much of it's bio-diversity damaged over the last few years, with felling of trees, cutting back of under growth etc. If it is lumped into the built up area of Westway where bio-diversity isn't so much of a priority and where house building will be more of one as well as other urban issues the open spaces of Chaldon will be challenged more than ever before and the unique feel of Chaldon would be lost.
