Comment text:

I have seen the proposal to move the boundary between Caterham Valley and Queens park ward (i.e. to move part of Caterham Valley to Caterham on the hill).

We live in Stafford Road, which is all in Caterham Valley (its is actually the lowest part of the Valley). There is no way our road could be considered Caterham on the Hill.

Equally illogical is the proposed changes to the Whyteleafe and Portley Ward.

Clearly whoever made these proposals does not know the area at all. But there could be one acceptable option to consider, that is to combine Queens Park and Westway and Chaldon.

I really hope whoever makes any final decision knows the area, otherwise the local council will simply lose credibility. Just to note, our local councillor for Caterham Valley lives in Caterham Valley so knows the issues very well, and is excellent at dealing with them.

Please make a sensible decision, and not an illogical and unworkable one.

I really hope you can help please.
