Related subject: Moving Nash parish to Cleobury Mortimer

I've only recently moved to Nash but in the short time I've been here it's clear that our links are clearly with the rural parishes that run up Clee Hill Road, from Burford to Clee Hill. Cleobury Mortimer is 8 miles from us and none of the we access services are based there - we use Tenbury or Ludlow. I don't believe a councillor for Cleobury would have much interest in a little parish on the edge of their patch, inevitably their focus would be on the much larger population in Cleobury.
