Re: the proposed changes to the County Council Boundaries.

The option I feel is best for Shincliffe's future is for it to become part of th 2-member county council division called Elvet & Gilesgate including Durham City Centre.

My reasons are that geographically and economically it is closer to Elvet and Gilesgate than Bowburn and Coxhoe. Historically Shincliffe has had close links with the City in terms of churches, schools and the university and even shares the DH1 postal code. I regard Shincliffe and High Shincliffe as an extension of Durham City and my GP practice, church and sports clubs are all in the City. I believe that Shincliffe will have similar priorities to Elvet, Gilesgate and the City of Durham. Bus routes linking up the villages along the A177 start out from Durham City.
