Please can you link Templetown with Delves Lane and the new estate on Genesis Way (Fenwick Way, Fawcett Park and Regents Park estates) in a 2 member ward as you welcomed comments on in your review. I think sub-dividing the proposed 3 member ward into that and a different Healyfield, Moorside, and Castleside ward is the best approach.

I am [REDACTED] and have lived at [REDACTED] in Templetown for several years. There are a whole host of reasons why the sub-division idea is the right one; I shall name a couple. The character of this housing is very similar to the Genesis Way area and some of the new housing in Delves Lane that it connects to.

I know that most people in Delves Lane and Templetown send their kids to primary schools there and in Consett rather than the 4 primary schools in the current Consett South ward and Castleside.

I would almost never go to Consett South or Healyfield as I do not drive. These areas are poorly connected with Templetown by bus. I do all of my shopping in the town centre and nearby retail park.

I do hope you don't merge Delves Lane, Consett South and Healyfield, but make them a 2 member and 1 member ward.

Thank you,
