Having only just had the opportunity of being aware if the proposal to move Greencroft Parish Council from Lanchester to Consett North, I would be grateful if you could consider my comments as I strongly disagree with the proposal.

Within the parish of Greencroft, Maiden Law is a small rural community within an area of farming and agriculture, we have no village services other than a local pub and no means of transport other than one bus service to Lanchester and therefore rely on their services ie shops schools library church and the social activities which Lanchester provide which are of particular benefit to some of our own residents in Maiden Law. I therefore feel that Greencroft Parish have no links at all with Consett North.
