I think it's a good idea to merge Barnard Castle East and West. I think that there should be a Teesdale Rural County Councillor and a Barnard Castle Town County Councillor, which would include all of Barnard Castle and Startforth. This would make it nice and easy to understand who to contact - if I have a problem in the town of Barnard Castle then I contact the Town County Councillor and then if my problem is in the rural district I contact the Rural County Councillor. I know that there are distinctions between geography and also functions split between the County Council and the Town Council eg Highways responsibility etc, but I don't want to get bogged down in the minutiae as I'm not from here originally and I don't care about the historical background.
