Related subject: Teesdale, and Upper Teesdale in particular

I object to the Boundary Commission's proposal for Teesdale and neighbouring areas because Upper Teesdale is a very rural are, quite different to the town of Barnard Castle. Also, there are strong community links between Upper Teesdale and Staindrop and Ingleton. There are few links with Evenwood, Weardale and the outskirts of Bishop Auckland. I therefore favour a 3 seat ward, as recommended earlier by local residents. In addition, having one County Councillor to represent the town of Bishop Auckland would be very helpful for the town.
