Peopleton sits well within the Upton Snodsbury Division for Worcestershire County Council. It is mostly a rural area with similar issues such as agriculture, use of countryside, rural crime etc. The county councillor is able to concentrate on these matters and not be distracted by more urban concerns.

If any change was made, it could be that Drakes Broughton moves to the Pershore Division as it is increasingly urban in character and some of the more rural parishes in the Pershore Division move to the Upton Snodsbury Division. The problem with this could be that an already large Division geographically becomes even bigger.
