Related subject: Long Ditton

I think that splitting the current ward 'The Dittons', thereby separating Long Ditton and Thames Ditton, is a mistake. The two areas share a seamless social fabric. The proposed change linking Long Ditton and Hinchley Wood is unnecessary and unhelpful. The Long Ditton community I know and live in is linked much more closely to Thames Ditton and Surbiton. Hinchley Wood is more aligned to Claygate and doesn't share services and amenities with Long Ditton in the same way that Thames Ditton does.
