Related subject: Oxshott

I am stunned at the idea that carving Oxshott into 2 parts along the A244 is even being vaguely considered. This village has been a whole electorate area for many years. Suggesting that one side of the A244 has one councillor and the other has a different is just ludicrous - who do we speak to about an A244 crossing? who looks at the housing/schooling arrangements for Oxshott? Two different councillors? Madness. Boundaries should be drawn to reflect obvious communities. This part of the re-organisation should be dropped completely - Oxshott must remain as a whole unit.
