Related subject: Windlesham

Whatever the county boundaries - Windlesham is a village & a community - it should never have been divided into two parts & the north ward added to bagshot while the south ward was added to Chobham. Windlesham is not a subset of either Bagshot nor Chobham - it is it's own village & community - & the boundary commission says we should not be dividing communities - especially without consulting them. Please right this wrong & give Windlesham its own borough ward & borough councillor if it is within your power to do so.
