Related subject: Oxshott

It would be a travesty to have split oxshott through the highstreet and integrate it into other surrounding towns. Oxshott and its residents prides itself on its unique identity and with that its proud sense of community. Splitting this in two will demolish this. It's a crazy idea with no clear upside. Oxshott should be invested in and we should be building g on the foundations that are already there rather than looking to loose its heritage.
