I strongly feel that Long Ditton should remain with Thames Ditton and not be joined with Hinchley Wood. The area is referred to as 'The Dittons' and has a strong community feel with the two. As residents of our current address for 10 years we regularly use the facilities, playgrounds, pubs, cafes , hairdressers etc of Thames Ditton but rarely use those of Hinchley Wood. We regularly attend 'The Dittons' fair each summer and have friends that use Stokes Field and the pubs of Long Ditton that live in Thames Ditton. The two villages merge well into one another currently and it would be a terrible shame to separate them when they have been linked since The Middle Ages! We should be celebrating this tradition and the lovely community the two villages have together rather than unnecessarily separated them.
