I feel Monkspath should be part of central Solihull so St Alphege or dorridge as it is so close and we live in Monkspath but use shops etc in central Solihull or dorridge and knowle. The schools are Solihull central too not Shirley, so I think Monkspath needs moving away from Shirley into central Solihull or dorridge more.

Castle Bromwich to me is Birmingham not Solihull purely on location not snobbery as I used to work there, it just doesn't fit with Solihull as seems so far away.
