Related subject: Kirklees as a whole and Dewsbury in particular

I feel that I have much more in common with Ossett, Horbury and (to some extent) Wakefield than I have with Dewsbury and/or Huddersfield. From where I live in Thornhill Edge, I can get a bus directly to Wakefield, but to get to Huddersfield I have to get a bus into Dewsbury first. After several frightening experiences in Dewsbury (in broad daylight) I now avoid going into the town whenever possible.
