I totally disagree with the opposed boundary. If the planned changes went ahead it would split a street in two, I've lived in the area all my life and think this is madness. One side getting funded by the Ryhope pot the other by the Grangetown pot. The new boundary which has been proposed would leave the area as it should be and move part of the to another which they are closer to now, there's one road which will define the area which in my opinion works better for all wards. The local councillors have worked hard to prove this. It's time to listen.
