Related subject: South Cerney Division

I'd like to support renaming South Cerney Division to South Cotswold Division.

The current Division is named after South Cerney which is the largest settlement in the division.

It is a large rural division containing 16 parishes which wraps around the south of Cirencester.

The proposed division contains no changes to the current boundaries.

Most of the villages have no connection to South Cerney and the current name of the division is confusing for the electorate.

South Cotswold is geographically accurate, clearer for the electorate and was the name of this division prior to 2013.
