The Electoral Matters Committee of Bromsgrove District Council met on 23 February 2024 and resolved to make a submission under delegated powers regarding this review.

It is requested that the boundary between Bromsgrove East and Bromsgrove South be along the railway line so that the properties within Field View House (21 electors) currently north of the railway line move into Bromsgrove South Division. The Council will be holding a community governance review regarding changing the parish boundary.

The areas of Bell End, Bell Heath and Sling Common have no connection with the Woodvale County Council Division.

Therefore, Bromsgrove District Council sees no reason as to why these areas should be included in the Woodvale Division and should remain within the Clent Hills Division as the Clent Hills Division is where residents look to go for their shopping, their education and their doctor's surgery. In addition to this, the whole area also sits within Bellbroughton Parish Council's jurisdiction.

Furthermore, Bromsgrove District Council is of the opinion that Alvechurch and Wythall remain separate Divisions with a single Member for each of these separate Divisions.
