Related subject: Kenton & Gosforth

After moving to the small cul-de-sac The Croft ([REDACTED]) a couple of years ago, I feel the border between wards is not clear to me or the local authority. It appears the homes of the street are part of Kenton however the entrance half of The Croft and the local "Kenton Park shops" are in the Gosforth ward. I only receive post regarding Gosforth local councillors and I have received no leaflets or post regarding Kenton councillors even though it is Kenton I would be voting for. Because of this I am regularly updated on Gosforth issues, events and businesses therefore I spend most of my shopping and leisure time in Gosforth and know almost nothing about my local ward Kenton. I feel Gosforth needs to include this area of Kenton Road and The Croft or the distribution information for the local election post/leaflets needs to be updated so homes in this area are receiving the relevant information.
