To whom it may concern

We are writing to object to the proposed new electoral arrangements. As residents of Madeley Heath, we do not believe the change reflects the needs of the community which is centred around the village of Belbroughton. Although relatively geographically close, Fairfield, Catshill and Bromsgrove are culturally very different to Bell Heath and Madeley Heath which are much more closely aligned with Romsley, Clent, and particularly Belbroughton, where our schools, GP practice, pubs and clubs are located. We do not believe the social aspects of such a change have been taken into consideration.

we wish to object in the strongest terms to such a change which will have the biggest impact on those with children and the elderly/vulnerable.

We also feel there has been insufficient notice or awareness of the proposals, as many residents are unaware of the changes you are suggesting and many of us who are aware found out via word of mouth. All residents should have been written to, when such a huge change is being discussed.

This appears to be an arbitrary decision based solely on numbers, and not the needs of the community.
