So looking at the map, I see that Aveley has 3 councillors & so does ockendon but also which is shocking to see that ockendon has also sectioned into 2 being half called Belhus which isnt the case & There is no Belhus, we have Belhus Woods which is past Aveley but I don't understand why ockendon has been split into two half's & why it requires 6 councillors to cover one town? I've never seen or heard of any of our councillors apart from one who recently got appointed to top boss and seen advaote alot for north ockendon because he lives there. I've never seen them speaking up on our behalf, or anything. With Aveley combined thats 9 councillors? I don't think that is necessary at all. We have Aveley, South Ockendon & North Ockendon. There isn't no need for there to be 9 councillors for this small town especially where I've lived here all my life and never heard of them.
