Comment text:

Dear sir or madam,

I wish to contribute to the consultation on the proposals for Kirklees.

I am in favour of your proposals, as I think they better reflect the communities we have, particularly in the Spen Valley, Batley and Dewsbury area of the borough. It is a good thing to bring together communities which have been split off, even if the shapes of the wards look a bit odd, rather than simply impose neat boundaries.

I also think it is right to use compass point names in Huddersfield, like in Dewsbury and Batley, as there are so many small settlements which have been absorbed into the town over many years that it is impossible to use all their names.

I also support the proposals for Almondbury and Kirkheaton which bring together similar communities with local ties.
