I wish to object to the proposed moving of the boundry in Netherthong which would effectively cut the village in half. I think as a village we identify more with being included in Holmfirth and the people responsible for making decisions for that area. Regarding polling stations, would half the village use Netherthong church as usual and half have to travel to Holmfirth, Honley or Meltham. Dividing a village seems to me a ridiculous and unnecessary plan. I hope you will reconsider. Thank you.
