I live in Snarestone(Appleby Ward). I don't feel any boundary changes would be beneficial. We are a rural ward with no significant NWLDC facilities. To include us within any more urban areas(like Measham) wouldn't be appropriate we are different in nature. For many years we have been a linked with the other villages in the ward by a common church parish council and have shared a parish news letter, we feel like a community which shouldn't be divided.
