I hope this message finds you well.

My name is [REDACTED] and I am a resident of Eldwick, as well as the [REDACTED] in Eldwick and [REDACTED] Mornington Road in Bingley. I am writing to express the importance of maintaining the connection between Eldwick and Bingley.

In our operations, we cater to customers from both Eldwick and Bingley, with at least 40% of our clientele being the same. The close proximity of the two areas and their numerous shared activities and events over the years, such as the Christmas run that traverses both communities, foster a strong, unified sense of community. This collaborative spirit is vital for our business and the community at large.

Conversely, our interaction with the Baildon community is minimal. The geographical distance between Eldwick and Baildon limits our engagement with residents there, and we rarely serve customers from that area. This highlights the natural and effective linkage between Eldwick and Bingley.

Given these considerations, I hope you recognize the significance of maintaining our association with Bingley. This relationship is not only beneficial for businesses like mine but also for the cohesion and prosperity of our community.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Kind Regards,

[REDACTED]
