Related subject: Bradwell Common

I live on Bradwell Common. Currently we are in Central MK ward for the Council elections and Bradwell Parish for our Parish Council.

Bradwel Common is not part of Central Milton Keynes.

The original Bradwell Common, along with what is now Heelands, was historically, pre- the building of MK, part of the parish of Bradwell and we have a local centre (on Heelands) a short walk away from housing on Bradwell Common, Heelands and Bradwell village.

Our Memorial Hall is in Bradwell village and we have far more in common with the Bradwell Parish area than with Central Milton Keynes.

Please put us back into a group with Bradwell Village and Heelands as that makes sense, not being part of one area for Council and one for Parish Council.
