To Whom it concerns.

I have lived at this address for nearly 60 years, moved here March 1975, and the Bluebell beck has historically always been the boundary. When I was a pupil at Stainsby School in the 50's there were very few houses, none in this road, the beck was as far as we could go from the school in our lunch breaks as it was part of the school grounds. This is an obvious and very strong boundary line. I live in Kader Ward Acklam not Stainton. Local people fought long and hard to keep our green belt from developers just a few years ago. This protest was successful and it achieved village green status. If the boundary is changed it will no longer belong to Acklam!! The Bluebell beck has been there for hundreds of years as an immovable boundary so let's keep it that way.

Yours Faithfully
