Related subject: Croft Baker

I live in Croft Baker ward. The name is outdated because the maternity home which the ward took its name from closed before I was even born.

I live on Beacon Hill and as the ward contains this plus much of the town centre & central stretch of promenade would it be best to call it Cleethorpes Central & Beacon Hill? There is a ward in nearby Bridlington called Bridlington Central & Old Town which is accurate for that area so my suggestion would hopefully be taken into consideration?

The other Cleethorpes wards make sense: Haverstoe and Sidney Sussex are named after recognisable parks in the centres of those wards.
