We reside at what seems to be the Northern most tip of the area covered by Westmorland and Furness Council in the small village of Newbiggin. Living where we do it seems a very long way from Furness, and it has to be said that when the new 'boundary' was decided upon it was a shock to discover we were not going to be in 'Cumberland'. Indeed the boundary line is literally on the northern edge of our village. Nearby Carlisle and Brampton are the two places I most regularly visit to address the majority of my needs, and both of these are now within the District boundary of Cumberland Council.

For example re my access to local services:

For large supermarket and store shopping - Carlisle.

For banking purposes the nearest branch - Carlisle.

Hospital appointments - the Cumberland Infirmary, Carlisle.

Train journey to visit relatives - Carlisle.

Nearest recycling centre - Brampton.

Post Office - Brampton.

Only use of local Public transport - a once weekly Fellrunner bus from Newbiggin to Penrith.

Fuel for car - Carlisle or Penrith.

Occasional food shop - Brampton, Penrith or Armathwaite village shop (it also has a post office counter).

GP Practice - Kirkoswald.

Dental Practice - Penrith

To conclude my postal address includes 'Heads Nook, Brampton'. Both locations I believe are in the Brampton and Fellside Ward of Cumberland Council.
