I live in Kings Meaburn & we have Parish Meetings rather than a Parish Council & that works very well & is very democratic .
Most people in Kings Meaburn & nearby Villages within a 6 Mile Radius of Appleby-In Westmorland use Appleby as their local amenity centre for Shopping & leisure, work etc . However as we are outside the Appleby Town Council Boundary we are not represented & have no say in what happens in Appleby itself . Similarly a lot of people do their "Big Shop" & work in Penrith again we have no say . It seems those of us that live in rural locations have little or no say in how are central & essential towns are operated
