Related subject: Willaston

Yes, under the proposals Willaston & Rope will not exist as a borough ward and it would be absorbed by Shavington to the south of the railway / Eastern Road, and Wistaston north of railway / Park Road. If the proposals are realised then Willaston would no longer be named with a ward councillor within Cheshire East Council. I understand that Willaston has been named as a ward in Crewe and Nantwich Borough Council (1974-2009) and prior to that the Rural District Council, since 1894. So it would be the first time since the establishment of local authorities that Willaston wouldn't be a named ward at that level of local government.

Please don't lose Willaston Ward.
