I bought my house because it is in Tytherington, not Macclesfield. Whilst I appreciate I have the luxury of being able to walk into the town centre, I appreciate more that I live the the Hamlet of Tytherington.

There is no logical reason why this should change other than to suit the suits in parliament, to ensure that Labour don't lose any councillors. As is the norm, this is underhand and does not take into consideration the views of the residents. As a local council, you too should be taking into consideration the views of your constituents and stop looking at everything as a money making project.
