Am writing to back your proposed split between villages to the North and to the East of Richmond. While deciding where to draw the line is never easy I do think the current solution suggested makes good sense in terms of balancing the numbers (which I understand to be the main point of the exercise) and reflecting key links between the various villages and their most relied on bigger towns. I'm glad to see that the main villages with primary schools to the North of Richmond (eg. Ravensworth, Melsonby, Barton) which feed into the catchment schools of Richmond & SFX are to be scooped in to the same division. That makes sense to me. I am also glad to see St Martins finally join with Richmond where it belongs, bringing with it Richmond Swimming Pool, The Station, Richmond Rugby Club and Richmond football grounds.
