I'd just like to add my support for the proposed boundaries in and around Richmond. They mirror and reinforce the main connections between the main towns and urban areas and the villages in our area. In particular they represent a pragmatic divide between those villages and parishes whose centre of gravity is Richmond (eg. Ravensworth, Gilling West, Skeeby, Barton, St Martins) and those whose main place of work play and key services are more likely to be Darlington (eg. Croft on Tees, Stapleton) or Northallerton (Cowtons, Scorton, etc) or Catterick Garrison (Colburn & Hipswell).

My only one question is the naming of the Brompton & Scorton division. Can I suggest it is renamed as Brompton on Swale & Scorton to avoid confusion with the nearby Northallerton & Brompton division. The village of Brompton on Swale is rarely shortened by locals so Brompton on Swale would be a truer and clearer representation.
