Related subject: Osbaldwick & Derwent: Derwenthorpe

Currently, Derwenthorpe lies entirely within the "Osbaldwick & Derwent" ward. Under the new proposals the "Tanghall [sic] & Derwenthorpe" ward would include around one quarter of Derwenthorpe with the remainder split between the Osbaldwick and Heworth Without wards. Having the majority of Derwenthorpe not within the ward which has its name seems odd. As a single estate with a distinct and cohesive community, Derwenthorpe tends to view itself as a single atomic entity and should really be within a single ward.
