I write as a former trustee of the Joseph Rowntree Foundation and the Joseph Rowntree Husing Trust. I was also a member of the JRHT Board at a time when Derwenthorpe, nr Osbaldwick, York, where I now live, was being planned and developed.

I am concerned to see that the proposed new ward boundaries will split Derwenthorpe into three different wards. Derwenthorpe is a single community, currently of approx 500 homes and 1000+ residents, intentionally planned as such. It is a socially mixed eco community, with a very strong sense of place. It would be a nonsense to split it in the way proposed. I have no doubt that the vast majority of those residents who think about these things will share this view.
