Comment text:

In York, Road signs are covered in dirt to the point of many being unreadable, pavements are unsafe to walk on, the city centre is losing its charm due to poor workmanship especially paving, hedgerows are over grown and high parking costs combined with poor transport links is forcing locals out of our own city.

Having more councillors which will bring higher costs in wages and expenses and therefore less investment is an awful consideration. Costs need to be reduced, not increased with unnecessary councillors.
