I live on the Langley Gate estate which is proposed to be moved from Rural West York to Acomb, a move I feel strongly against.

There is no clear need for the change. The Langley Gate community has longstanding historical ties to Poppleton.

Residents identify more strongly with the surrounding rural area and would prefer to remain part of a rural parish ward rather than be incorporated into a city ward.

We bought a house in Poppleton not Acomb, changing the boundary will have a detrimental effect on our house prices and also lead to increases in both car and home insurance premiums.

The stated aim of the review is to balance elector numbers across wards (approximately 3,200 electors per councillor). However, moving our area would leave Rural West York around 10% below that average.
