I wish to raise my objections the proposed changes to ward boundaries. Trenchard Road, Portal Road, and a small number of properties on Boroughbridge Road would be moved from the Rufforth and Knapton ward into the Acomb ward.

As a resident of Trenchard Road I don't wish to move into the Acomb ward.

We are a close knit community with strong links to Poppleton and Rufforth.

We're conveniently located for access to local schools, Poppleton, Rufforth primary and Manor secondary school. It would not be beneficial for children to travel further in order to complete their education.

It is unclear whether residents would receive the same level of local representation and support as part of a larger city ward. It is totally due to their due diligence that the residents were made aware of these proposals. Why have the Council not been more forthcoming in publicising this proposal. It seems suspicious
